

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

New York Financial Market.
NEW YORK, April 29.—Money—On call continues easy at 1½ per cent.

Prime Mercantile Paper—4½ per cent.

Bar Silver—10¢.

Foreign Exchange—Continue extremely dull; actual business at 45¢@48¢.

Government Bonds—Firms at unchanged quotations, except 3's, which are ½ per cent. higher; There was a sale of coupon 4's at 12½¢.

State Bonds—Quiet, with slight changes in quotations in some cases.

Railway Bonds—The market has been quiet today, but the business done has been well distributed. The total sales were $69,000, an increase over yesterday of $57,000. The largest transaction was in Erie, Missouri Pacific, and East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia.

12 sales of stock to day aggregating 115,246 shares, inclosing the following: Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 9,609 shares; Northwestern, 8,600 shares; New York Central, 6,900 shares; Pacific Mail, 10,700 shares; St. Paul, 10,200 shares; Atlantic Coast Line, 1,000 shares; Oregon Transcontinental, 9,400 shares.

Sales this evening are irregular as compared with last previous sales, but the changes in a majority of cases are for only fractional amounts.

The market was very dull during the first 10 days, immediately after the opening there was heavy selling of Union Pacific by the bears, and the price broke from 45¢ to 43¢ with sales during the first hour of 21,000 shares. It is evident that the market is still in a state of indecision, interest in this stock now amounts to as much as all of the floating stock in the street. The decline was checked after the first hour, and from that time until the close the market Union Pacific was dull but strong, closing at 43¢. Net 10 percent of the first hour's trading was in Union Pacific, but there was also some selling of Missouri Pacific.

Omaha preferred, the stock last mentioned, selling down to 40¢, was followed by a general decline in the early dealings, and after 11 o'clock the market became strong and extremely dull, and so continued until shortly before the close of the board, when it was slightly up, but not enough to close strong, at 40¢. Net 10 percent of the first hour's trading was in Union Pacific, but there was also some selling of Missouri Pacific.

Pacific Mail, which had been very strong, was followed by a general decline in the early dealings, and after 11 o'clock the market became strong and extremely dull, and so continued until shortly before the close of the board, when it was slightly up, but not enough to close strong, at 40¢. Net 10 percent of the first hour's trading was in Union Pacific, but there was also some selling of Missouri Pacific.

Union Pacific closed down 1½ per cent.
